The government has disclosed various materials in the Turkish language during discovery in this matter. Pursuant to Rule 16(a)(1)(G) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, the government hereby notifies you that it intends to call Language Analyst Tulay Smartt of the Federal Bureau of Investigation to testify as an expert witness at trial. Analyst Smartt is expected to testify about her translation of Turkish-language materials from Turkish to English. A copy of Ms. Smartt's resume is enclosed.

The government has disclosed computer equipment and forensic examinations thereof during discovery in this matter. Pursuant to Rule 16(a)(1)(G) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, the government hereby notifies you that it intends to call Special Agent Stephen Flatley as an expert witness at trial. Special Agent Flatley is expected to testify about his imaging and forensic examination of the defendant's computer equipment. A copy of Special Agent Flatley's resume is enclosed.

The government previously seized various items from the defendant pursuant to court-authorized searches and at the time of his arrest, and made those items available for inspection. After the defendant's sentencing, the government returned certain items to the defendant or his designated recipient, at the defendant's request and pursuant to the Court's order. See ECF Nos. 47-55. The government recently recovered some of these items. A list of recovered items is enclosed; the items are available for inspection.

If you have any questions or requests, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Very truly yours,

LORETTA E. LYNCH
